Parks & Rec. Spotlight

Brenda worked for Pinal County for 17 years in three departments: Medical Assistance, Child Support and Long Term Care. She then went to work for the State of Arizona with Developmental Disabilities, and since May 2014, has been the Recreation Coordinator of the City of Coolidge Adult Center. Working with the seniors is rewarding for Brenda, and her passion has always been working for and with the seniors. She holds an Assisted Living Manager License from the Board of Examiners of Nursing Care Institution Administrators and Assisted Living Facility Managers and has been a member of Arizona Senior Centers Association since June 2014. Brenda resides in Coolidge, and has three children and 2 grandchildren.
