NATIONAL FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY WEEK -
OCTOBER 21 - OCTOBER 27

To our friends,

Although the Friends of the Coolidge Library incorporated in 1982, their history goes back to the 1950s. Original volunteers purchased furniture, books, and supplies for the new library. Resident Olan Williams, who passed away this year, told stories of bringing his daughters to the library every week back then. It was one of their main forms of entertainment. Today, the Friends host books sales all year. The money raised from the sales pay for the library's summer activities. More than 1,400 people attended events this summer. The Coolidge Library Staff would like to say, "Thank you! We couldn't do it without you, Friends!"
